The Word of God[1] for the Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

My Spirit is a flame of longing, and the word of My mouth becomes this longing, and I tear from the glory of the Father My coming to earth as word, and great heavenly glory is this word of My mouth between heaven and earth, and no one has a share in this glory, except those to whom My Father makes them a part of it, of faith for it, and behold, I am a word upon the earth after two thousand years since My resurrection from the dead, and I have a new name, a wonderful name: The Word of God, as it is written that I will bear this name at the end of time. (Apoc: 19/13)[2]

Oh, My country of coming, I have in you a citadel and a way of coming, and I am coming with the glory of My word to you, sharing it among the nations and languages and proclaiming with it that I am coming from the Father who had sent Me and that I have chosen Romania for Me and for the glory of My coming, a word on earth.

Oh, peace to you, peace and embrace over your land and people, My country of today! I miss My glory in you and My Spirit is burning with longing for My coming to you, and the time has come for which I have longed so much, and I long for you to rise up to meet Me, so that I may set wonders and signs in you, to testify through them the work of My word over you, oh, and I have called you to come, see and understand and then believe the work of My coming to your land, but the rulers over your flock have put a heavy stone over My mouth and opened theirs and pulled you out of My way and you have not come to My call, to My sign placed between Me and you, when I opened the gates of the heavenly works, so that you would see a piece of paradise on your land and long for Me and for your happiness, which I am ready to give you and to make you a comfort over the peoples and for the peoples to know Me with the resting place of the word of My mouth on your hearth, to share in My comfort, with which Christ, your God, your Shepherd, My country embraces you; however, your paid shepherds hide you from Me and from My coming to you, and for seventy years they have been fighting over My word and have so cruelly silenced My trumpet through which I have left My word and My cry over you, My country of today.

Oh, what shall I do with you, those who have passed away in the body, or those still in the body on the chairs of shepherds of the Christian flock in the land of My coming word on earth now?

I came seventy years ago and blew My trumpet, so that you too could hear that the Lord would be coming, that the Bridegroom is coming, and so that you could go out to meet Him. However, you became Judas and gave My trumpet to slander and torment, writing in the chronicles that she has no mind and that she must stay with those who are depraved in mind, oh, but after a long time of torment and suffering, I gave her deliverance from under your hand, an enemy to Me and her, (See The Life of Saint Virginia[3], the sixth apocalyptic trumpet, r.n.) for the word of My mouth was flowing like a river through her mouth during the time of your investigation of her, and the chief of the country, (Gheorghe Gheorghiu Dej, ed.), found out about this miracle of My word through My trumpet (See the selection topic: „The apocalyptic trumpets[4]", r.n.) and asked to see her and he found out about her heavy torment from you towards her, he found out about My word coming on earth and put her under protection and freedom then, oh, and so many words of My mouth through My trumpet remained on the table of her oppressors, and some repented of their sins when they heard the Lord speaking, and speaking through the trumpet to Him, oh, and that time will stand face to face with all the unbelievers then and now, but here is this fulfillment, for My story with Virginia are going in the film[5], crossing borders and being announced to large and small houses, to great and small people, to peoples and languages, as it is written to share the glory of My word over the earth, oh, that the promises and words of God cannot be erased and behold, they have been fulfilled, and one by one they appear with their accompanying signs, and the place and the work and the day of celebration at Maluri village, are written as a sign over time, as great fulfillments of My word over the earth, and they are great mysteries and difficult to penetrate by those stubborn for faith.

And I am now recalling the confessed unbelief of the archpriest of Târgoviște, who had fought for seven years to destroy the path of My word and then to leave a curse upon the citadel of My descent, oh, and the curse turned upon him, as he himself spoke when he said that he would not believe My word even if he lost both his legs, and then he shook the dust from his feet to leave a curse upon the citadel; however, the shame was not of those who endured under the pressure of persecution, for behold, he then lost his legs, poor thing, and I took him from the midst of the flock and made him a witness from above of the work of My word over the church, oh, and so great is the glory of the word of God on the Romanian land, and so much do I long for it and I am longing with a blazing fire for it, and the word of My mouth becomes this longing, and I am baptizing in it with the Holy Spirit and with fire the whole earth and the people on it, as it is written, for I want to cleanse those on earth from unbelief and to save many from this punishment, for there is no sin heavier than the sin of unbelief, and woe to those who will be found in this sin, when I come to earth with the glory of the word! (See the selection topic: „About baptism[6]", r.n.)

It was hard for Israel to believe in My miracles and in Moses, oh, and that people fell into unbelief, for the flesh wanted to believe, and it rained flesh upon them afterwards, as a sign from above for their unbelief, and yet they did not choose to believe further, and behold, this sin is heavy upon the sinful man in every way and form, and who stands broken by unbelief, face to face with the signs and wonders of God, between heaven and earth!

I am giving advice from heaven to the unbelievers, telling them to wish and ask as the apostle Thomas did, to see and believe; however, Thomas said this out of longing to see Me, not out of unbelief, and he was the most faithful among My disciples from that time, even though I told him, «Do not be unbelieving, but be happy that you have seen according to your faith!» (See John: 20/29)

Oh, what more can I say to the doubters? I remind them that I, the Lord, said that no one can have and bear this glory of faith and accomplishments, except only those to whom it is given by the Father to bear, and blessed are those who have God as their father on earth, for these are those to whom the Father reveals Himself through Me, through His Son Jesus Christ, and behold, I am the word upon the earth on Sunday and I have left food from above on the table of the people of My word, so that it may be shared for the benefit of believers and unbelievers, and behold, on this day the apostle Thomas is being celebrated among those in heaven and he is bowing down, greeting My citadel and work and the people of My word from Me, and He is leaving an exhortation upon the unbelievers to ask from above to share faith with them, so that they may share in the fruits of faith and that none of them may remain with the unbelievers afterwards.

I am leaving My word with longing, and it is sitting written in its book of these days, carrying over the earth the name of the One Who speaks through it. The Word of God is called My book of today and it is testifying to My seventy-year history, written on the Romanian land for My testimony, and it is announced through written book and film, and the story of My coming again to people is going across lands and nations to give them of My glory from the Father and to draw everyone to My Father. (See the selection topic: „About the Book of the Lamb - The Book of Life[7]", r.n.)

Blessed be My proclamation on earth, and may it bear fruit for heaven and for the salvation of many! Amen.

Blessed be the heralds of My word and My grace for them at all times, everywhere they proclaim the coming of My word on earth! Amen.

May you be blessed, My country of today, My first love at the creation of heaven and earth! I am coming back to My first love, to you, holy Romanian land, on which I stood in the beginning, spoke and fulfilled. I am molding you with a new creation and I am still longing as a blazing fire after your first beauty, when I, the Lord, molded from your clay a house of rest, a man built in My image and likeness, and upon whom I breathed the spirit of life and gave him the garden of paradise as an inheritance; oh, however, he did not remain on My side afterwards, and since then I have always longed for you, for My first love, the one from the beginning, and I am coming to you with the renewal, with your new birth, Romanian people.

I am the Lord and your Maker, Jesus Christ, the Word of God, My new name, and all things are renewed, starting with My name and your name, the new Jerusalem, the Romanian Jerusalem and My coming and My first love again on earth, now, at the end of time. Amen, amen, amen.
